

The purpose of the entomological center is to study faunistic structure of insects of our republic, to study their distribution and a role in biocenoses. Task of this center is:

- 1) To study specific structure, fauna and a biodiversity of insects in Azerbaijan.
- 2) Will study pests of plants, their distribution and food communications with plants.
- 3) To reveal and study a role entomophageus – parasites and predators in regulation of number of pests to find out their parasite - the relations hosts.
- 4) To reveal small and endangered species of insects, to organize their protection.